Routine Matters:

- A. Agenda approved
- B. Minutes approved
- C. Reports
 - i. Cemetery/Bldg.-Your Home Repairs said the roof was ok. Horizon Roofing said there are $15,650 worth of repairs needed. All will follow-up on details and email council. LJ Plumbing came and cleaned pipes in boiler. Coming back to inspect next week. Al checked with Dave Leither about cemetery stones and will inspect in spring. Choir Loft-some council members will inspect and report back.
 - ii. School Board-Barry reported 44 students. Going to quarterly board meetings instead of monthly. Deer Widows weekend this weekend, 10-2. Pray and Walkathon raised over $14,000. Hired a part-time aide in Pre-K because there are 11 students. Barton tutoring is going well. Dec. 14th is Christmas program.

Open Session- Rich reported that Knights of Columbus breakfast is looking for ideas instead of breakfast because of no Sunday mass here. Maybe a spaghetti supper?
Railings by church donated by Al's Ornamental.

New Business:

- a. Lawn Mower/mowing- Arnolds quote for trade-in of Kubota $3,200. Discussed hourly rate to mow. Al will talk to Ralph Anderson to see what he has time for and proceed from there.
- b. Permanent Deacon Dullinger ordained in June and asked Fr. Ron to be part of cluster. 5-10 hours/wk.-mostly volunteer
- c. Council member terms-ok.

Old Business: a. Discussed sound system in church and reconciliation room.
